The War At a Glance

FURTHER successes of the agattempting to turn the German right wing are claimed in an afficial announcement issued at Puris this afternoon. It is stated that the allies on the western wing have advanced considerably and Peronne has been occupied after Perchase has been designed by desperate resistance. Perconne is 75 miles north of Lassigny, near where an advance by the aillies was namounced in Wednesday afternoon's official statement. The position of Percoane Indicates the movement of the nilles' left wing, which is much further north than their main haftle line.

The turning movement of the Franco-British forces, first directed against Gen. You Kinck in an effort to envelop his army, appears from unofficial dispatches to have met added resistance from strong German reinforcements.

The Paris announcement says there has been heavy fighting on the river Neuise at the esatern end of the battle line, where the allies have alternately attanced and retired. desperate resistance. Peronne is

Troops to Stay Awhile.

Official Washington does not expect the American troops to depart from Veracrus until the controversy has been adjusted although it was officially valed at the white house this forenoon that the president had not altered his intention of withdrawing the forces. It was pointed out hiser, however, that as no date ever had been fixed for the evacuation, the matter would be held in abeyance indefinitely without further amountement from the white house department.

Advices from Veracrus told of a panickly feeling amons residents there. Conditions in Mexico City similarly were described as critical. Many confiscations of property had concurred against which the Brazillan minister, in behalf of the United States, made vigorous protests. Promises have been repeated. All agents of the Washington government report a crisis throughout Mexico, but amid the seriousness of the situation there is hope expressed in official quarters that a compromise may be effected and further bloodshed avoided.
